Re: United States v. Jared Mitchell, et al.
Criminal Docket No. 16-234 (BMC)

Dear Counsel:

Pursuant to Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the government hereby furnishes the following additional discovery with respect to the above-referenced matter. This submission supplements the government's earlier disclosures of May 27, 2016 and August 10, 2016. The government again requests reciprocal discovery.

The enclosed encrypted discs consist of the following materials: (i) American Express records for defendant Herschel C. Knippa III ("Knippa") (FRNG-AMEX-000001770-2109); (ii) Equities.com videos involving individuals including Knippa

¹ The first Equities.com video, involving Knippa and a female news interviewer, is from December 15, 2014.

² Freedom Fest is a conference held in Las Vegas annually, and is typically held in or about the second week of July. The recordings being produced are for the years 2012 through 2015. The recordings are also being produced to counsel without bates stamp with the native file names used by the contracted third party vendor that recorded the conference. The vendor advises the government that the file naming convention they use is that the first two numbers that appear in the name are the last two digits of the year in which the recording was made. For example, a recording with the name "12-104" would be for the year 2012.

³ The New Orleans Investor Conference recording for Knippa is from on or about October 22, 2014. The New Orleans Investor Conference video files for Petrossi are from on or about October 29, 2015, October 30, 2015, and October 30, 2015.
